BISHOP JOHN

*St Lawrence Church
Westminster Close Kirkdale*

This will be my first Christmas among you in Liverpool and I am looking forward to experiencing how you do Christmas in Liverpool. Over many years in many places, I notice how churches build their own fabulous traditions around Advent and Christmas and I am excited to see how you mark this great festival.

But I am reminded that in our extravaganza and paraphernalia of festivities, we can lose sight of the harsh realities of the nativity story: a stable, the cold night, the Inn's closed door, refugees fleeing to Egypt, the brutal slaughter of the innocent.

These harsh realities mirror the harsh realities of the world we live in. We see war, natural disasters, chronic anxiety, and poverty all around us. God embraced this world when sending Jesus at Christmas and God asks us as a church, who face challenges of our own, to lift our heads and show love to the world. To be encouraged by the nativity story and encourage others because of it.

St Paul's Church Celia St Kirkdale

As in previous years, the Church of England tries to come together with a campaign for Advent and Christmas. This year's theme – Follow the Star: Join the Song – highlights how singing can help draw us closer to God and each other through the journey from Advent to Epiphany. I encourage you to use their resources and take part in their invitation to sing the First Nowell as part of a way of bringing people to church.

And then together we are singing a song of God's hope for God's world. A hope that can only come through our belief in Jesus and Jesus' story from Christmas to Easter.

So sing this song of hope as you celebrate Christmas in your place. And renew in yourself a commitment to being that light of hope in God's world.

Have a blessed, peaceful, hope-filled Christmas.

THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

We read in Genesis that darkness covered the face of the earth. This past year we have seen too much darkness within this world. With the ongoing war in the Ukraine and the terrible catastrophe unfolding in Israel. Many other appalling and evil atrocities around the world. Not to mention what is happening to the environment! This past year has been a dark one for us.

But within the backdrop of all this does God still care? Is He still visible? These are very important questions for us to consider. Why? As a Christian I read my Bible every day. As I read it, I find that in every situation known to humanity God is to be found. The Psalms especially help us to discover the truth of this, and as we read them, we are encouraged and challenged to re-engage and discover this afresh. What a blessing this really is!

Darkness once covered the face of the earth. As God continued to create the world, we read of a brilliant relationship that two people shared with God. Adam and Eve. Before things went pear-shaped with their disobedience all seemed wonderful and perfect. Then a new darkness entered creation. Through the subtle lies of the serpent. We know him as Satan!

Did God give up on humans then? Not at all! He was planning the restoration of humanity through the offering of His Son, Jesus! God's atonement for our sin and all of it poured out upon Jesus on that first Good Friday. Love come down in the form of human flesh. This is what Christmas is all about. The light of Christ shining through a world fallen into darkness.

Has God abandoned each of us? No! Has He given upon creation? No! If he had, then there would be no Good News to share. God still has everything in the palms of His hands. Including you and me. So, take joy this Christmas. What God has begun He will bring to completion. The Bible says so and that is good enough for me.

This will be my last Christmas message to you as I retire at the end of July. May God bless you all, and may His light perpetually shine upon you.

God bless you all.

FAMILIES AT CHRISTMAS

Christmas and families – What a fabulous time it can be. Laughter, Joy, sharing of gifts, and spending time together around the Christmas tree, and around the table to share a meal. I asked my son, ‘What was the most important thing to him about families at Christmas’, and he said, ‘Christmas dinner and everyone talking to each other’. It sure gives us a warm feeling when we think of that. But we are also aware that for some families it is very different. Our prayers this Christmas are for those who are missing a loved one, for those who are away from home, and those who will be cold, hungry, and lost.

Our Lord and saviour Jesus Christ was born in a lowly manger with very little in the way of possessions, yet He was filled and surrounded by love. He is God’s gift to us and the most important gift we will ever receive. Wherever we are this Christmas time we can be assured that God’s love is for us all. Each of us can come in out of the cold and darkness that surrounds many of us; join God’s children in worship and meet Him at the cross or the manger and feel His love and presence that is available to us all. God invites us in, and at St Lawrence with St. Paul’s Church, we too invite you to come in and feel the warmth of God’s comfort this Christmas time.

We look forward to meeting with you and sharing God’s love.

God Bless

SISTER MARJORIE GRIFFIN

I love singing Christmas carols, so I get excited when each year, the calendar turns onto December. I like to concentrate on Christmas for spiritual meaning rather than the mad buying of presents and eating too much chocolate.

I would like to share a couple of things about two of my favourite carols. The first is a verse from the carol 'In the bleak mid-winter.

Our God, Heaven cannot hold Him
Nor earth sustain;
Heaven and earth shall flee away
When He comes to reign:

I love those words 'Our God, heaven cannot hold him.' Our wonderful, gracious God came in human form, to show us how he understands us, how close he is to us, how much he loves us and wants us to enjoy the abundant life he offers. This Christmas gift is on offer to all and from O Little Town of Bethlehem:

How silently, how silently
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him,
still, the dear Christ enters in.

Jesus is not just a historical figure, he lives, and his promises are as much for now as when he walked the earth.

"Where meek souls will receive him -still, the dear Christ enters in."

And the best thing? This special gift lasts past Christmas – it lasts for eternity!

If you have never considered Christmas and the gift of Jesus to the world this way before – why not give it some thought this year? And if you receive him, Christ will enter in. And the wonderful things he offers will be yours.

And if you do know Jesus, how will you be sharing him with your neighbours this year? Many around us need acknowledgement and kindness. Perhaps we can pray for ways we can share God's blessings with them.

SAVE YOUR STAMPS

and make a difference to blind and partially sighted people.

As Christmas approaches you'll probably receive Christmas cards through the post, so instead of just putting the envelope in the recycling bin why not help the RNIB by saving the postage stamp? Make sure you leave a centimetre of envelope or packaging around each stamp. (This is just a recommendation and stamps that have been trimmed less or more will still be accepted). There is a box at the back of church for you to put the stamps in.

By collecting stamps you're helping to break down the barriers that stop people with sight loss living life to the full. They accept all stamps: new or used, first or second class, foreign, first day covers, presentation packs or albums. Stamps are sold by weight and they raise £20 per kilogramme of stamps, so it's a brilliant way to raise money.

CHRISTMAS SAFETY NOTICE

1. All members of our community planning to dash through the snow in a one horse open sleigh, going over the fields and laughing all the way are advised that a Risk Assessment will be required addressing the safety of an open sleigh for members of the public. This assessment must also consider whether it is appropriate to use only one horse for such a venture, particularly where there are multiple passengers. Please note that permission must also be obtained in writing from landowners before their fields may be entered.
2. To avoid offending those not participating in celebrations, we would request that laughter is moderate only and not loud enough to be considered a noise nuisance.
3. Benches, stools and orthopaedic chairs are now available for collection by any shepherds planning or required to watch their flocks at night. While provision has also been made for remote monitoring of flocks by CCTV cameras from a centrally heated shepherd observation hut, all users of this facility are reminded that an emergency response plan must be submitted to account for known risks to the flocks.
4. The angel of the Lord is additionally reminded that, prior to shining his/her glory all around, s/he must confirm that all shepherds are wearing appropriate Personal Protective Equipment to account for the harmful effects of UVA, UVB and the overwhelming effects of Glory.
5. Following last year's well-publicised case, everyone is advised that Equal Opportunities legislation prohibits any comment with regard to the redness of any part of Mr R Reindeer. Further to this, exclusion of Mr R Reindeer from reindeer games will be considered discriminatory and disciplinary action will be taken against those found guilty of this offence.
6. While it is acknowledged that gift bearing is a common practice in various parts of the world, particularly the Orient, everyone is reminded that the bearing of gifts is subject to Hospitality Guidelines and all gifts must be registered. This applies regardless of the individual, even royal personages. It is particularly noted that direct gifts of currency or gold are specifically precluded, while caution is advised regarding other common gifts such as aromatic resins that may evoke allergic reactions.
7. Finally, in the recent instance of the infant found tucked up in a manger without any crib for a bed, Social Services have been advised and will be arriving shortly!

MERRY CHRISTMAS!
